

William Velekei Receives 2017 PICPA Young Leaders Award

We are pleased to announce William Velekei CPA, CFP®, received the 2017 Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants Young Leaders award. The award is presented to individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to the accounting profession through participation in the PICPA as well as their community.

Will is a financial advisor with Corbenic Partners, bringing experience from SGF Capital and KPMG. Will has a strong dedication to his clients as well as his community, serving on the Executive Committee for the Lehigh Valley Chapter of Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the chapter's Emerging CPAs committee. He also serves on the Children's Services Committee for the Salvation Army of the Lehigh Valley and is an active member of the Financial Counseling Team for the First Presbyterian Church of Bethlehem.

About Corbenic Partners

Corbenic Partners is an independent Registered Investment Advisor - a wealth management firm that prides itself in being an entrepreneurial boutique with the same values as our clients. The experience of our partners dates back more than 25 years. Our firm places the interests of our clients above all other considerations.

Our firm is proud to work with a select group of affluent families and individuals who prioritize the safeguarding of their wealth through thoughtful planning and prudent implementation. Often our clients are focused on inter-generational transitions and succession planning, and the various strategies involved, from trusts and estates to saving for college and retirement.

To learn more about Corbenic Partners, visit us online corbenicpartners.com